Reliable • Powerful • Permanent • Affordable

An e-mail system for devotees, Ashramites, Aurovillians, ex-students and anyone connected with Sri Aurobindo and the Mother, their yoga and writings.

Is e-mail important in your life or work?
Sign up for an address in the form yourname@auromail.net

Use it with any standard e-mail software anywhere in the world on the PC or Mac or Linux (Outlook, Outlook Express, Thunderbird, Entourage, etc.). Simple, clean, fast web-mail access at www.auromail.net. No slow-loading advertisements.

Reliable: Goodbye to lost and delayed e-mails. Not just a “pretty” e-mail address, Auromail.net is hosted by a US company specialising in e-mail that manages 30 million addresses for 300,000 domains. It is arguably the most reliable e-mail company in the world.

Powerful but easy to set up: 10 GB mailbox space • Fast POP, IMAP, web-mail access • Authenticated SMTP server for outgoing mail • Unlimited and free aliases • Auto-forwarding • Powerful anti-SPAM filtering • Automatic virus scanning • No limit to size of incoming message as long as there is space for it in the user’s 10-GB storage limit • Outgoing message can be as large as 25 MB

Lifelong: An Auromail account is permanent, your final e-mail identity. Shift freely between Internet providers – no longer forced to stick to a particular one because you are using its e-mail address. Better than the so-called free accounts which have limited features, are slow and SPAM-filled. Better than your company e-mail account which is not permanent, nor private.

Affordable: Rs. 500 per year. Current users are located all over the world: in India, North America and Europe, and include Ashramites, devotees, devotee-owned businesses, Ashram-school alumni, Ashram departments and others. (Note: Auromail is only an e-mail address. It does not provide you independent Internet access; you still have to access the Internet the normal way to be able to use Auromail.)
